Wayne Douglas Merkley	Case no. 23-90086 (CML)
v.
Corizon; Health Services;	Motion To Allow
[In re] Tehum Care Services	Plaintiffs to Move Jointly

Comes now the Plaintiff Wayne Douglas Merkley, incarcerated under the Idaho Board of Corrections / Idaho Department of Corrections;

Similarly, situated is Stephen Floyd Ulrich, #56989, same address.

That both filed separately a Motion

For Joinder into the above listed case before the above listed Court and accepted; and

Both having filed a Motion and Affidavit for Appointment of Counsel, pending;

the request, and the acceptance of these two parties to move jointly would save judicial resource, and be in a good public interest.

That, in Merkley vs. Idaho Board of Corrections, U.S. Dist. Ida., Document 9, 12/21/23, pg. 16 of 19, #1:23-cv-00207-AKB

"Plaintiff names Corizon, the prisons former private medical (provider) contractor as a defendant. However on February 13, 2023, Corizon filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy in The United States (District) Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, under case no 2340086-emh. The automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362 in that action prevents plaintiff from proceeding.⁹⁹

Other Defendants were listed in this action
Thus the case is open - ongoing

However, the only remedy / relief is of this Court, Houston Texas.

I, Wayne Douglas Merkley do hereby PRAY for this Court to grant him
the ability to move jointly with Stephen Floyd Ulrich, 1/2/2024
